

What can you do at the evacuation area?

● You can live here with others when buildings have collapsed and you are unable to stay in your home.

● Anyone can go there.

● You are able to get food and water here. You can also get important information.

How to stay at the evacuation area

① Please write your name on the reception sheet at the front.

● Please make sure to check-in.

② After checking in, please move to the residence area.

● Since the residence area is temporary, you may be moved to another space.

● Please understand because residence area for one person is about 2 square meters.

Please follow the next rules

● Please take off your shoes.

● Smoking is prohibited.

● Please share foods and supplies with everyone.

● please help with others if you are healthy.

⚠ If you have any troubles, please tell the operation staffs.